FOR WOMEN & CHILDREN
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2022

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE DIRECTORS OF LUKE'S PLACE SUPPORT & RESOURCE CENTRE FOR WOMEN & CHILDREN

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Luke's Place Support and Resource Centre For Women & Children (the Organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2022 and the statements of operations, changes in net assets, and cash flow for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion section of our report, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects the financial position of Luke's Place Support and Resource Centre For Women & Children as at March 31, 2022 and the results of its operations and cash flow for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

In common with many not-for-profit organizations Luke's Place Support and Resource Centre For Women & Children derives a portion of its income from the general public in the form of donations, fundraising and education and training, which are not susceptible to complete audit verification. Accordingly, verification of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of Luke's Place Support and Resource Centre For Women & Children. Therefore, we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to donations and fundraising and education and training, excess of revenue over expenses, assets and unrestricted funds for the years ended March 31, 2021 and 2022 and current assets as at March 31, 2021 and 2022 and net assets as at April 1 and March 31 for both the 2021 and 2022 years. Our audit opinion on the financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2021 was modified accordingly because of the possible effects of this limitation in scope.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Organization in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements. As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

(c) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from management's best estimates as additional information becomes available in the future. Included in these financial statements are estimates for accounts receivable and accounts payable and accrued charges.

(d) Allocation of Grant-Related Expenditures

The allocation of grant-related expenditures is based upon expenses incurred in relation to budgets approved by the grant funder. The breakdown is provided in Note 4.

(e) Contributed Services

The activities of the Organization are dependent upon the voluntary services of many individuals. Because of the difficulty of determining their fair value, contributed services are not recognized in the financial statements.

8. Impact of COVID-19

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared a global pandemic (the "pandemic") as a result of the spread of COVID-19. Since that time, the pandemic has severely impacted local economies around the globe. In many countries, including Canada, organizations were forced to cease or limit operations for long or indefinite periods of time. Measures taken to contain the spread of COVID-19, including travel bans, quarantines, physical distancing, and closures of nonessential services have triggered significant disruptions to organizations worldwide, resulting in a widespread economic slowdown. Governments and central banks have responded with monetary and fiscal interventions in an attempt to stabilize economic conditions.

In response to local government restrictions, the Organization was not able to continue with certain planned events, while working to support its clients through the periods of government restrictions. As a result of the pandemic, the Organization has received federal wage subsidies in order to minimize the financial impact of the pandemic on its employees. The Organization recognized total government subsidies of NIL(2021: $13,282), which have been recognized in the statement of operations during 2020/2021 in other revenue. As at March 31, 2022, NIL of government assistance was included in accounts receivable.

The duration and impact of the pandemic, as well as the effectiveness of government and central bank responses, remains unclear at this time. The Organization continues to monitor eligibility for future government assistance. It is not possible to reliably estimate the duration and severity of these consequences, as well as their impact on the financial position of the Organization for future periods.
